Microsoft OneNote Otter is the Mac app for the note taker who hates typing. It's an intelligent voice-recognition system and note-taking app that will help you transcribe your conversations, keep notes during meetings, and even take contextual notes to yourself in your own time.. Best of all, it's free to get started! Download: Otter. While I found Evernote and Simplenote to be the best overall note-taking apps, others stood out for specific features, which you might want to consider depending on your needs.

The screenshot shows the CNET website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with the CNET logo and links for BEST PRODUCTS, REVIEWS, NEWS, VIDEO, HOW TO, SMART HOME, CARS, DEALS, and DOWNLOAD. A large advertisement banner for the Samsung Galaxy Note9 is visible, featuring a 50% off discount. The main content area displays a news article titled "Oracle v. Google ain't over yet -- Google vows it'll appeal to Supreme Court" under the "TECH INDUSTRY" category. The article text states: "The decision comes after a federal appeals court declined to rehear the case." Below the title, it says "BY ABRAR AL-HEETI / AUGUST 28, 2018 2:09 PM PDT". To the left of the article is a sidebar with a "TODAY" section containing various news snippets with timestamps. At the bottom of the article, there's a photo of a Google sign at 900 Alta Avenue.
